Pennsylvania occupies the propid and exalted position of having the largest number of members of the G. A. R. of any state in the Union. Her numerical strength in this regard is 46,000. There were 215 regiments from Pennsylvania serving in the cavairy, infantry and artillery during the War. besides fifty-five irregular regiments in the short-time service, comprising a total of 340,000 soldiers sent after Governor Curtin had assured President Lincoln that Pennsylvania would not be backward in furnishing volunteers. There was not an engagement of the War in which some of her sons did not participate. As a state her War record is superb.
